

6516209083.txt

i would like you to know that i use the services of xm radio because they provide me with the services that fm used to provide before they lost sight of there audiences. i pay for this service and therefore fell it a threat and violation of my right to choose who and what i will listen too over the airways. if the broadcasters wish to get there listeners back they should just listen in on the xm radio and hear how they used to sound before they turned into a laughing stock.